

PRESS RELEASE

LOYOLA HOSTS MCGILL

The Loyola Warriors are hoping a return to home grounds will give them the edge they need to upset the powerful McGill Redmen. After last year's turn-out the annual Loyola-McGill football game was again to be played at Molson's Stadium.

Due to construction on the McGill Campus it was later shifted to THIS SATURDAY, 2:00 P.M. AT LOYOLA.

The Warriors are hoping Freshman Q.B. Garry Verge; a 6'2", 180 lb. product of St. Laurent will be able to keep McGill off stride with his running and passing. Verge will have a good selection of receivers to throw to. End Dwayne Dudgeon, who is always a threat, is back after a year's absence from an injury. Verge will also be turning to Split-End Jim Lynch and Flankers Pete Malouf and Tom Glatzmayer. To match McGill on the ground Loyola will have two speedsters, Frank Belvedere, second leading rusher and scorer in the C.C.I.F.C. and newcomer Tony Accursol.

There will be plenty of action defensively for the Warriors as they try to stop McGill's trio of Smith, Fleizer and Aiken. Head Coach George Dixon will need outstanding effort from veteran defenders John Williams, Mike Sylvia, Leo Conrad, Greg Iodice, Bob Deriault, Bob Miele and Rick Niemirowski.

Immediately following the game the winning team will be presented with the "Shaughnessy Memorial Cup". The award was instituted last year in memory of the late Frank "Shag" Shaughnessy Sr. who served with distinction as a football coach at both McGill and Loyola. The Cup was donated by Canadian Schenley Distilleries Ltd.
